Rain Plan

The May 13 ceremony will be held in Fisher Garden if at all possible. Candidates for graduation, their parents, families, and friends should take precautions if the campus has experienced recent rain conditions by wearing appropriate footwear and having umbrellas handy.

If inclement weather conditions absolutely prevent an outdoor ceremony, a decision to hold the event in the Bryan Campus Life Center will be made by the morning of May 13. If you have questions about the location, check the Rhodes home page (rhodes.edu) or call the number below. In case of rain, members of the Class of 2017 should line up with caps and gowns on the first floor of the Bryan Campus Life Center.

NOTE: Only those with seating tickets will be admitted to the rain site in the Bryan Campus Life Center. Four (4) of the six tickets provided for seating in Fisher Garden can be used for seating in the multi-sport courts of the Bryan Campus Life Center. Those without seating tickets can watch the ceremony at the following sites: McCallum Ballroom and Lynx Lair in the Bryan Campus Life Center; Blount Auditorium of Buckman Hall; the lobby of Burrow Hall; and Hyde Hall in the Burrow Refectory (dining hall). The ceremony will also be streamed live from the Rhodes home page (rhodes.edu).

Caps, gowns, and hoods should be returned to Hardie Auditorium in Palmer Hall on Saturday up until 2:00 p.m. or after that to the Campus Safety Office.

Notification of Rain Plan

If the rain plan goes into effect, a message will be posted on the Rhodes home page (rhodes.edu). For recorded updates call: Rhodes telephone switchboard (901-843-3000)
